National Night Out

National Night Out (NNO) is Tuesday, August 6th and Central Marin Police Authority (CMPA) is looking forward to another evening of fun and conversation with our community members. Please join them as they host two "block parties"; one in San Anselmo and the other in Corte Madera.

Now in its 36th year, NNO was created by the National Association of Town Watch to make an organized statement against crime. NNO always takes place on the first Tuesday in August. NNO events are held across the country and encourage residents to come out and spend the evening getting to know their neighbors, police officers, fire fighters, and other community organizations.

Once again, CMPA will host their block parties at two locations: in Corte Madera at Menke Park, Redwood and Corte Madera Avenues; or at their San Anselmo station, 525 San Anselmo Avenue. Their parties will run from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. and provide an opportunity to meet and chat with not only CMPA officers, but also their public safety partners from CHP, the Central Marin and Ross Valley Fire Departments, and community organizations. There will be games for kids, the opportunity to see police and fire vehicles up close, and free hot dogs for all.

Have questions or want more info? Contact Margo Rohrbacher, NNO coordinator, at margor@centralmarinpolice.org. Click here to view and share the event flyer.

They look forward to seeing you!!
