1 Prior to permit issuance, Applicant is responsible for providing plans to Marin County Environmental Health for review & approval if applicable. Applicant is responsible for School Fees and Developer Impact Fees, if applicable.

Q: Who can pick up an approved permit?

A: A licensed contractor can sign for a permit, as long as he or she has the appropriate classification, a Corte Madera Business License, and has written authorization to sign on behalf of the license holder (if not the actual license holder). The property owner can sign for a permit as an owner-builder and must supply a signed owner-builder acknowledgement.
